

Marine Mammal Rescue Intern Short Response Questions

1. Please describe why you are passionate about working in the field of marine mammal science and conservation.

2. What experience do you have communicating scientific information to the public? Or communicating with the public generally? (this can be in person, or online)

3. How would this position help you to achieve your career goals?