

Humpback Whale

Humpbacks are large baleen whales. Baleen whales use comb-like plates called baleen to filter millions of tiny krill, plankton and small fish from the water everyday! Biologists identify humpback whales by the markings on their flukes (or tails). Each fluke is unique!

Can you design and color a pattern for the fluke below?
What would you name your whale, based on its fluke design?

SEACOAST
SCIENCE CENTER